

Getting to California Nanosystems Institute (CNSI) Art Gallery at UCLA

Campus visitors may purchase daily parking permits ($12) from any Information and Parking kiosk on campus or in a pay by space within the Parking Structure.

Please bring cash with you in case the pay station is broken and only accepts cash.

Attendants at any Information Kiosk can provide you with a map and directions to the most appropriate parking structure and answer any questions, if you get lost.

UCLA is located in Westwood, an area of west Los Angeles located between Beverly Hills and the beach community of Santa Monica. It is closely located to the 405 freeway. To get to the campus entrance you can ask taxi drivers and GPS devices to navigate to the intersection of Westwood Blvd and Charles Young Dr, 90095.

The closest pay station lots to CNSI are Parking Structure 2 and 8.

Parking in Structure #2

The Primary Parking Structure 2 located at 602 Charles E. Young Drive East Los Angeles, CA 90095. Please drive to the intersection of Hilgard and Westholme and stop at the parking information kiosk, if you have any issues with finding the parking structure.

If for some reason, Parking Structure #2 is full, then you can park at Parking Structure #8. Parking Structure 8 is located at 55 Westwood Plaza.

Walking from Parking Structure #2 (wheel-chair accessible)

- Once you have parked, please exit from the parking structure walking north –i.e. walk back in the direction of the parking info kiosk.
- After you have exited the structure and walked back toward the parking info kiosk you can then cross Charles E. Young Drive east at the signal.
- After crossing the street, continue to walk west down the path. You will see Franz Hall on your left as you begin walking.
- As you continue walking the Inverted Fountain will be on your right.
- Continue walking west until you reach the Math Science Building (it will be on your left).
- Pass under the breezeway portion of the Math Sciences Building (mid-section).

- Continue walking through the Court of Science. You will pass Boelter Hall on your right and then proceed down the steps. The Court of Sciences Student Center will be on your left, and the California Nanosystems Institute on your right.
- Please make your way to the front entrance. Security can let you in.
- Lost? Please call Kendra at 925-200-5631. Or the CNSI staff at 310-794-2118
